ABOUT CAMP BILLY GIBBONS

THERE'S SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE IN THE RUGGED HILLS OF BRADY CREEK!

At CBG, scouts of all ages and experience can enjoy an outstanding Summer Camp program. From the first-year camper program to the extensive merit badge program offerings and the adult leader training opportunities, scouts of all ages experience fun and adventure while maximizing their summer camp experience. Camp Billy Gibbons has served thousands of Scouts of over the years, and now has third generation Scouts attending summer camp and swimming in the same river as their grandfathers did. The camp is considered the last of the summer wilderness camps in the state. One must drive down a thirteen mile ranch road, over fourteen cattle guards, to get to the camp. The property is located fifteen miles southwest of Richland Springs, Texas, on the north bank of Brady Creek. The rugged Central Texas features of Camp Billy Gibbons, with sheer rock faces, clear water, native forest and wildlife, sets the stage for a fulfilling summer camp experience. The camp staff and fellow units in attendance will share and strengthen your unit adventures through leadership, comradery and plain old' scout spirit!

The Camp Billy Gibbons Summer Camp has a full program of Aquatics, Scoutcraft, Nature/Conservation, Shooting Sports, Climbing & Rappelling, and Handicraft.

Introduced in 2018 – Enjoy the NEW Climbing Tower & Cowboy Action Shooting!
